An International Professional Exercise and Competition for Emergency Medical Services

It is with great pleasure we announce that in cooperation with the Cyprus Emergency Service we organize the sixth Cyprus Aphrodite Rally.

Cyprus Aphrodite Rally will be held on 27-29/9/2017 in Ammochostos-Agia Napa and will last 3 days since overnight scenarios will be taking place.

In the contest can participate: Medical teams, paramedics teams rescuers, nurses and nursery or medicine students.

The situations that will be addressed involve the treatment of traumatic, cardiac arrest, electronic simulation pathological emergency incident and the management of mass casualties.

Each team should have 4 members and will compete in 10 different tasks. Each group will be given an ambulance and all necessary equipment.

This competition is actually a game which will help us to acquire knowledge, experience, techniques and lastly enjoyment.

Besides the gaining of knowledge, the contest's aim is to help the candidates to develop that mentality, that behaviour and those techniques they need in order to be active members of a team, by taking advantage of the team member's experience, aiming at the achievement of great results.

Who to Save lives in the land of Aphrodite....
